What are the key risks that are specific to the Issuer?

The Issuer is subject to the following key risks:

1. Liquidity risk arising from potential inability to borrow or access the capital markets on suitably favourable terms (including due to adverse changes in its credit ratings) or to sell its assets. This may also arise from increased liquidity costs. CS relies significantly on its deposit base for funding, which may not continue to be a stable source of funding over time.
2. Risks arising from the impact of market fluctuations and volatility on CS' investment activities (against which its hedging strategies may not prove effective). The spread of COVID-19 has caused disruption to global supply chains and economic activity; this is expected to have a significant impact on the global economy, at least in the first half of 2020, and is likely to affect CS's financial performance, including credit loss estimates, trading revenues, net interest income and potential goodwill assessments. CS is closely monitoring the potential effects and impact on its operations, businesses and financial performance, including liquidity and capital usage, though the extent is difficult to fully predict at this time due to the rapid evolution of this uncertain situation. CS is also exposed to other unfavourable economic, monetary, political, legal, regulatory and other developments in the countries in which it operates (as well as countries in which CS does not currently conduct business), including uncertainties regarding the possible discontinuation of benchmark rates. CS' significant positions in the real estate sector - and other large and concentrated positions - may also expose it to larger losses. Many of these market risk factors, including the impact of COVID-19, may increase other risks, including CS' credit risk exposures, which exist across a large variety of transactions and counterparties and in respect of which it may have inaccurate or incomplete information. These are exacerbated by adverse economic conditions and market volatility, including as a result of any defaults by large financial institutions (or any concerns relating thereto).
3. CS' ability to implement its current strategy, which is based on a number of key assumptions, is subject to various factors outside its control, including market and economic conditions and changes in law. The implementation of CS' strategy may increase its exposure to certain risks, including credit risks, market risks, operational risks and regulatory risks. The implementation of CS' strategy relating to acquisitions and other similar transactions subjects it to the risk that it may assume unanticipated liabilities (including legal and compliance issues), as well as difficulties relating to the integration of acquired businesses into its existing operations.
4. Country, regional and political risk in the regions in which CS has clients or counterparties, which may affect their ability to perform their obligations to CS. In part because an element of its strategy is to increase CS' private banking businesses in emerging market countries, it may face increased exposure to economic instability in those countries, which could result in significant losses. Related fluctuations in exchange rates for currencies (particularly for the US dollar) may also adversely affect CS.
5. A wide variety of operational risks arising from inadequate or failed internal processes, people or systems or from external events, including cybersecurity and other information technology. CS relies heavily on financial, accounting and other data processing systems, which are varied and complex, and may face additional technology risks due to the global nature of its operations. CS is thereby exposed to risks arising from human error, fraud, malice, accidental technology failure, cyber attack and information or security breaches. CS' businesses are also exposed to risk from non-compliance with existing policies or regulations, employee misconduct or negligence and fraud. CS' existing risk management procedures and policies may not always be effective against such risks, particularly in highly volatile markets, and may not fully mitigate its risk exposure in all markets or against all types of risk. Moreover, CS' actual results may differ materially from its estimates and valuations, which are based upon judgment and available information and rely on predictive models and processes. The same is true of CS' accounting treatment of off-balance sheet entities, including special purpose entities, which requires it to exercise significant management judgment in applying accounting standards; these standards (and their interpretation) have changed and may continue to change.
6. CS' exposure to legal risks is significant and difficult to predict and the volume and amount of damages claimed in litigation, regulatory proceedings and other adversarial proceedings against financial services firms continues to increase in many of the principal markets in which CS operates. Changes in regulation and monetary policy applicable to CS (as well as regulations and changes in enforcement practices applicable to its clients) may adversely affect its business and ability to execute its strategic plans and increase costs, as well as impact the demand from clients for CS' services. In addition, Swiss resolution proceedings may affect CS shareholders and creditors.
7. Intense competition in all financial services markets, which has increased as a result of consolidation, as well as emerging technology and new trading technologies (including trends towards direct access to automated and electronic markets and the move to more automated trading platforms). In such a highly competitive environment,

CS' performance is affected by its ability to recruit and retain highly skilled employees and maintain its reputation for financial strength and integrity, which could be harmed if its procedures and controls fail (or appear to fail).

Limitations to rights:

- The Issuer may redeem the Securities early for illegality reasons or following certain events affecting the Issuer's hedging arrangements and/or the Underlying Asset. The Securities may be redeemed early following an event of default. In each such case, the amount payable in respect of each Security on such early redemption will be equal to the Unscheduled Termination Amount, and no other amount shall be payable in respect of each Security on account of interest or otherwise.

Where:

Unscheduled Termination Amount: in respect of each Security, an amount (which may be greater than or equal to zero) equal to the value of such Security immediately prior to it becoming due and payable following an event of default or, in all other cases, as soon as reasonably practicable following the determination by the Issuer to early redeem the Security, as calculated by the calculation agent using its then prevailing internal models and methodologies.

For the avoidance of doubt, if a Security is redeemed following an event of default, the Unscheduled Termination Amount shall not take account of any additional or immediate impact of the event of default itself on the Issuer's creditworthiness (including, but not limited to, an actual or anticipated downgrade in its credit rating).

- Subject to the conditions and other restrictions set out in the terms and conditions of the Securities, the Issuer may adjust the terms and conditions of the Securities without the consent of Securityholders following certain events affecting the Issuer's hedging arrangements and/or the Underlying Asset, or may early redeem the Securities at the Unscheduled Termination Amount as described above (and no other amounts shall be payable in respect of the Securities on account of interest or otherwise following such determination by the Issuer).
- The terms and conditions of the Securities contain provisions for convening meetings of Securityholders to consider any matter affecting their interests, and any resolution passed by the relevant majority at a meeting will be binding on all Securityholders, whether or not they attended such meeting or voted for or against the relevant resolution. In certain circumstances, the Issuer may modify the terms and conditions of the Securities without the consent of Securityholders.
- The Securities are subject to the following events of default: if the Issuer fails to pay an amount due in respect of the Securities within 30 days of the due date, or if any events relating to the insolvency or winding up of the Issuer occur.
- The Issuer may at any time, without the consent of the Securityholders, substitute for itself as Issuer under the Securities any company with which it consolidates, into which it merges or to which it sells or transfers all or substantially all of its property.

Governing law: The Securities are governed by English law.

Status of the Securities

The Securities are unsubordinated and unsecured obligations of the Issuer and will rank equally among themselves and with all other unsubordinated and unsecured obligations of the Issuer from time to time outstanding.

Description of restrictions on free transferability of the Securities

No offers, sales or deliveries of the Securities, or distribution of any offering material relating to the Securities, may be made in or from any jurisdiction except in circumstances that will result in compliance with any applicable laws and regulations.

Where will the Securities be traded?

Application has been made to admit the Securities to trading on the regulated markets of (a) the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and (b) Nasdaq Stockholm AB.

What are the key risks that are specific to the Securities?

The Securities are subject to the following key risks:

1. Investors may lose some or all of their investment if one or more of the following occurs: (a) if the Issuer either fails or is otherwise unable to meet its payment obligations under the Securities, (b) if the FX Final is less than 110 per cent. of the FX Initial, (c) if investors sell their Securities prior to maturity in the secondary market at an amount that is less than the initial purchase price, (d) if the Securities are redeemed early at the discretion of the Issuer and the Unscheduled Termination Amount is less than the initial purchase price, or (e) if any adjustments are made to the terms and conditions of the Securities that result in the amount payable under the Securities being reduced.
2. The value of and return on the Securities will depend on the performance of the Underlying Asset over each of the Averaging Dates, compared to the level of the Underlying Asset on the Initial Setting Date. The value of and return on the Securities will also depend on the performance of the FX Rate on the Final FX Date as compared to the Initial FX Date. If the FX Final is less than 100 per cent. of the FX Initial, the value of and return on the Securities will be adversely affected notwithstanding that the performance of the Underlying Asset is positive.
3. If the Participation Percentage factor is less than 100 per cent., the Securityholder will not participate fully in the performance (whether positive or negative) of the Underlying Asset. In such case, the return on the Securities will be disproportionately lower than any positive performance of the Underlying Asset, and may be significantly less than if the Securityholder had purchased the Underlying Asset directly.
4. The Participation Percentage will not be set by the Issuer until the Initial Setting Date so that the Issuer may take into account the prevailing market conditions at the time of the close of the offer period in order that the Issuer may issue the Securities at the relevant price and on the relevant terms. Prospective investors will not have a right of withdrawal from their purchase obligation when the final amount(s) are set by the Issuer. Investors should note that no supplement will be published in relation to such final setting.
5. The Underlying Asset is a proprietary index which has an in-built volatility control mechanism. Proprietary indices are subject to additional risks associated with a limited operating history and a reliance on external data and data sources. The rules of a proprietary index may be amended by the relevant index sponsor at any time and the index sponsor has no obligation to take into account the interests of Securityholders when calculating such proprietary index.
6. The Issuer may apply any consequential postponement of, or any alternative provisions for, valuation of the Underlying Asset following certain disruption events in relation to such Underlying Asset, each of which may have an adverse effect on the value of and return on the Securities.
7. In certain circumstances (for example, if the Issuer determines that its obligations under the Securities have become unlawful or illegal, following an event of default or following certain events affecting the Issuer's hedging arrangements and/or the Underlying Asset), the Securities may be redeemed prior to their scheduled maturity. In such circumstances, the Unscheduled Termination Amount payable may be less than the original purchase price and could be as low as zero. No other amounts shall be payable in respect of the Securities on account of interest or otherwise following such determination by the Issuer.
8. Subject to the conditions and other restrictions set out in the terms and conditions of the Securities, if the Issuer determines that any adjustment events or other events affecting (i) the Underlying Asset, or (ii) the Issuer's hedging arrangements have occurred, the Issuer may adjust the terms and conditions of the Securities without the consent of the Securityholders. Any such adjustment could have a material adverse effect on the return on, and value of, the Securities.

PART TWO
SECURITIES NOTE
RISK FACTORS

The Issuer believes that the risk factors specific to the Securities described below are material for the purpose of taking an informed investment decision associated with the Securities, but these are not the only risks that the Issuer faces or that may arise under the Securities. There will be other risks that the Issuer does not currently consider to be material, or risks that the Issuer is currently not aware of, or risks that arise due to circumstances specific to the investor.

More than one investment risk may have simultaneous effect with regard to the value of the Securities and the effect of any single investment risk may not be predictable. In addition, more than one investment risk may have a compounding effect and no assurance can be given as to the effect that any combination of investment risks may have on the value of Securities.

Within each category, the risk factor that the Issuer believes is the most material to the Securities is presented first. For the avoidance of doubt, the remaining risk factors in each category are not presented in order of materiality.

1. Risks relating to the Securities generally

(a) Potential loss of some or all of the investment

Investors may lose some or all of their investment if one or more of the following occurs:

- (i) if the Issuer either fails or is otherwise unable to meet its payment obligations under the Securities;
- (ii) if the FX Final is less than 110 per cent. of the FX Initial;
- (iii) if investors sell their Securities prior to maturity in the secondary market at an amount that is less than the issue price or the initial purchase price of the Securities;

- (iv) if the Securities are redeemed early under their terms and conditions at the discretion of the Issuer and the Unscheduled Termination Amount payable on such early redemption is less than the issue price or the initial purchase price; and/or
- (v) if any adjustments are made to the terms and conditions of the Securities following certain events affecting the Issuer's hedging arrangements and/or the Underlying Asset, that result in the amount payable under the Securities being reduced to, or being valued at, an amount that is less than the original investment.

(b) A "Participation Percentage" factor of less than 100 per cent. means that you will not participate in the full positive performance of the Underlying Asset

The terms and conditions of the Securities provide that the Redemption Amount is calculated based upon the performance of the Underlying Asset and is multiplied by the Participation Percentage factor which may be less than 100 per cent. If the Participation Percentage factor is less than 100 per cent., the Securityholder will not participate fully in the performance (whether positive or negative) of the Underlying Asset. In such case, the return on the Securities will be disproportionately lower than any positive performance of the Underlying Asset, and may be significantly less than if the Securityholder had purchased the Underlying Asset directly.

(c) Setting of amounts specified to be indicative

The Participation Percentage is an indicative amount and will not be set by the Issuer until the Initial Setting Date. There is a risk that the Participation Percentage set by the Issuer will be other than the indicative amount(s) specified, although the final amount(s) will not be less than the minimum amount specified. Investors will not have a right of withdrawal from their purchase obligation when the final amount(s) are set by the Issuer.

(d) Factors affecting the performance of the FX Rate may adversely affect the value of and return on the Securities

The performance of foreign exchange rates, currency units or units of account are dependent upon the supply and demand for currencies in the international foreign exchange markets, which are subject to economic factors, including inflation rates in the countries concerned, interest rate differences between the respective countries, economic forecasts, international political factors, currency convertibility and safety of making financial investments in the currency concerned, speculation and measures taken by governments and central banks. Such measures include, without limitation, imposition of regulatory controls or taxes, issuance of a new currency to replace an existing currency, alteration of the exchange rate or exchange characteristics by devaluation or revaluation of a currency or imposition of exchange controls with respect to the exchange or transfer of a specified currency that would affect exchange rates as well as the availability of a specified currency. Any such measures could have a negative impact on the value of and return on the Securities.

In particular, if the FX Final is less than 110 per cent. of the FX Initial, investors may lose some of all of their investment. Further, the terms and conditions of the Securities provide that the Redemption Amount is calculated based upon the performance of the Underlying Asset which is further multiplied by the performance of the FX Rate on the Final FX Date as compared to the Initial FX Date. If the FX Final is less than 100 per cent. of the FX Initial, the value of and return on the Securities will be adversely affected notwithstanding that the performance of the Underlying Asset is positive.

(e) The Securities are general unsecured obligations of the Issuer

Securityholders are exposed to the credit risk of the Issuer. The Securities will be adversely affected in the event of (i) a default, (ii) a reduced credit rating of the Issuer, (iii) increased credit spreads charged by the market for taking credit risk on the Issuer, or (iv) a deterioration in the solvency of the Issuer. The Securities are not deposits and are not protected under any deposit insurance or protection scheme.

- (f) In certain circumstances, the Issuer may redeem the Securities prior to their scheduled maturity. The Unscheduled Termination Amount payable on such early redemption may be less than the issue price or the purchase price

The Securities may be redeemed prior to their scheduled maturity in certain circumstances – for example, (i) if the Issuer determines that its obligations under the Securities (including any calculations or determinations to be made by the Issuer), or its hedging arrangements have become unlawful or illegal, (ii) following an event of default, (iii) following certain events having occurred in relation to the Underlying Asset. In such case, the Securities may be redeemed early prior to their scheduled maturity for an amount equal to the Unscheduled Termination Amount and no other amounts shall be payable in respect of the Securities on account of interest or otherwise following such determination by the Issuer.

The Unscheduled Termination Amount will be equal to the value of the Securities immediately prior to them becoming due and payable following an event of default or, in all other cases, as soon as reasonably practicable following the determination by the Issuer to early redeem the Securities, as calculated by the Calculation Agent using its then prevailing internal models and methodologies. In particular, investors should note that the Calculation Agent will take into account the creditworthiness of the Issuer (including, but not limited to, an actual or anticipated downgrade in its credit rating) and the interest rate at which the Issuer (or its affiliates) is charged to borrow cash (which may also reflect the creditworthiness of the Issuer) in calculating the value of the Securities, which may reduce the Unscheduled Termination Amount payable.

The Unscheduled Termination Amount may be less than the issue price or the initial purchase price of the Securities and investors may therefore lose some or all of their investment and may not be able to reinvest the proceeds in another investment offering a comparable return.

- (g) The market value of the Securities will be affected by factors beyond the control of the Issuer

The market value of the Securities will be affected by factors beyond the control of the Issuer, such as the factors listed below:

- (i) the creditworthiness of the Issuer (whether actual or perceived), including actual or anticipated downgrades in its credit rating;
- (ii) the remaining time to maturity of the Securities;
- (iii) interest rates and yield rates in the relevant market(s);
- (iv) the volatility (i.e., the frequency and size of changes in the value) of the Underlying Asset;
- (v) the value of the Underlying Asset to which the Securities are linked;
- (vi) national and international economic, financial, regulatory, political, military, judicial and other events that affect the value of the Underlying Asset or the relevant market(s) generally; and
- (vii) the exchange rate between the currency in which the Securities are denominated and the currency in which the Underlying Asset is denominated and the volatility of such exchange rate.

Some or all of the above factors will influence the value of and return on the Securities in the market. Some of these factors are inter-related in a complex way, and as a result, the effect of any one factor may be offset or magnified by the effect of another factor. Investors should note that the market value of the Securities may not exactly track the performance of the Underlying Asset (i.e. the positive or negative performance of the Underlying Asset may not result in the same degree of change in the value of the Securities).

Further, the price at which you sell your Securities in the market will reflect a commission or a dealer discount, which would further reduce the proceeds you would receive for your Securities. If you sell your Securities prior to maturity, the price you will receive may be substantially lower than the original purchase price and you may lose some or all of your investment. This could be the case even if the value of the Underlying Asset has not changed since the Issue Date.

(h) Limited liquidity

Notwithstanding that application will be made for the Securities to be admitted to trading on an exchange, the Securities may not have an active trading market. The Issuer may, but is not obliged to, purchase the Securities at any time at any price in the open market or by tender or private treaty and may hold, resell or cancel them. As such, the only way in which a Securityholder can realise value from a Security prior to its maturity or expiry is to sell it at its then market price in the market, which may be less than the amount initially invested (see the risk factor entitled "The market value of the Securities will be affected by factors beyond the control of the Issuer").

A secondary market for the Securities may not develop. Even if one does develop, it may not provide the holders of the Securities with significant liquidity and/or may not continue for the life of the Securities. A decrease in the liquidity of the Securities may cause, in turn, an increase in the volatility associated with the price of such Securities. Illiquidity may have a severe adverse effect on the market value of the Securities.

The Securities are also subject to selling restrictions and/or transfer restrictions that may limit a Securityholder's ability to resell or transfer its Securities.

Accordingly, the purchase of Securities is suitable only for investors who can bear the risks associated with a lack of liquidity in the Securities and the financial and other risks associated with an investment in the Securities. Any investor in the Securities must be prepared to hold such Securities for an indefinite period of time or until redemption or expiry of the Securities.

(i) The Issue Price or the Offer Price may be more than the market value of the Securities as at the Issue Date

The Issue Price or the Offer Price in respect of any Securities may be more than the market value of such Securities as at the Issue Date, and more than the price, if any, at which the Dealer or any other person is willing to purchase such Securities in secondary market transactions. In particular, the Issue Price or the Offer Price in respect of any Securities and the terms of such Securities take into account, where permitted by law, fees, commissions or other amounts relating to the issue, distribution and sale of such Securities, or the provision of introductory services. Such fees, commissions or other amounts may be paid directly to the relevant distributor or, if the Securities are sold to the relevant distributor at a discount, may be retained by the relevant distributor out of the Issue Price or the Offer Price paid by investors. In addition, the Issue Price or the Offer Price in respect of the Securities and the terms of such Securities may also take into account (i) the expenses incurred by the Issuer in creating, documenting and marketing the Securities (including its internal funding costs), and (ii) amounts relating to the hedging of the Issuer's obligations under such Securities.

(j) In certain circumstances, the Issuer may adjust the terms of the Securities, and such adjustment may have a negative effect on the value of the Securities

If the Issuer determines that any adjustment events or other events affecting (i) the Underlying Asset, or (ii) the Issuer's hedging arrangements have occurred, the Issuer may adjust the terms and conditions of the Securities without the consent of the Securityholders. Any such adjustment could have a material adverse effect on the return on, and value of, the Securities.

(k) The Issuer may be substituted without the consent of Securityholders

The Issuer of Securities may be substituted without the consent of Securityholders in favour of any affiliate of the Issuer or another company with which it consolidates, into which it merges or to which it sells or transfers all or substantially all of its property, subject to certain conditions being fulfilled.

(l) Risk of withdrawal of offering and/or cancellation of issue of Securities

It is a condition of the offer that the Issuer reserves the right to withdraw the offer and/or cancel the issue of Securities at any time. The Issuer may determine to withdraw the offer and/or cancel the issue of Securities for reasons beyond its control, such as extraordinary events, substantial change of the political, financial, economic, legal, monetary or market conditions at national or international level and/or adverse events regarding the financial or commercial position of the Issuer and/or the other relevant events that in the determination of the Issuer may be prejudicial to the offer and/or issue of the Securities. In such circumstances, the offer will be deemed to be null and void. In such case, where an investor has already paid or delivered subscription monies for the relevant Securities, the investor will be entitled to reimbursement of such amounts, but will not receive any interest that may have accrued in the period between their payment or delivery of subscription monies and the reimbursement of the amount paid for such Securities.

(m) No obligation to maintain listing

Investors should note that the Issuer will not be obliged to maintain the listing of the Securities. Securities may be suspended from trading and/or de-listed at any time in accordance with applicable rules and regulations of the relevant stock exchange(s). If the regulated market or other market in respect of which the Securities are listed and/or admitted to trading closes, or if the relevant regulated market in respect of which the Securities are admitted to trading is replaced with a market that is not a regulated market, the Issuer may de-list the Securities or may (but is not obliged to) consent to the Securities to be admitted to trading on such replacement market instead. In the event that there is a delay or break between the listing of the Securities on the original market or regulated market, as the case may be, and the listing of the Securities on the replacement market, or the Securities are de-listed, there may be a negative impact on the Securities (for example this may negatively impact the liquidity of the Securities and the ability of the Securityholders to sell the Securities).

(n) The rights of the holders of Securities issued by the Issuer may be adversely affected by Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority FINMA's broad statutory powers in the case of a restructuring proceeding in relation to the Issuer, including its power to convert such Securities into equity and/or partially or fully write-down such Securities

Swiss banking laws provide FINMA with broad powers and discretion in the case of resolution procedures with respect to Swiss banks such as the Issuer. In such resolution procedures, FINMA may require the conversion of Securities issued by the Issuer into equity of the Issuer and/or a partial or full write-down of such Securities. In such case, holders of Securities issued by the Issuer would lose all or some of their investment in such Securities. Where FINMA orders the conversion of Securities issued by the Issuer into equity of the Issuer, the securities received may be worth significantly less than such Securities and may have a significantly different risk profile.

2. Risks associated with Securities that are linked to the Underlying Asset

(a) The value of and return on the Securities depend on the performance of the Underlying Asset

The Securities represent an investment linked to the performance of the Underlying Asset and Securityholders should note that the value of and return on the Securities will depend on the performance of the Underlying Asset over each of the Averaging Dates, compared to the level of the Underlying Asset on the Initial Setting Date. The extent to which the return on the Securities is affected by the performance of the Underlying Asset will depend on (i) the Participation Percentage (see the risk factor entitled "A "Participation Percentage" factor of less than 100 per cent. means that you will not participate in the full positive performance of the Underlying Asset") and (ii) the performance of the FX Rate on the Final FX Date, as compared to the Initial FX Rate (see risk factor entitled "Factors affecting the performance of the FX Rate may adversely affect the value of and return on the Securities").

(b) Occurrence of Additional Disruption Events

Additional Disruption Events in respect of the Underlying Asset may include events which result in the Issuer incurring material costs for performing its obligations under the Securities due to a change in applicable law or regulation, or the inability of the Issuer and/or its affiliates to maintain or enter into hedging arrangements in respect of such Underlying Asset and the Securities. Upon determining that an Additional Disruption Event has occurred, the Issuer has discretion to make certain determinations to account for such event including to (i) make adjustments to the terms of the Securities (without the consent of the Securityholders), or (ii) cause an early redemption of the Securities. Any such determination may have an adverse effect on the value of and return on the Securities. Following such determination by the Issuer, no other amounts shall be payable in respect of the Securities on account of interest or otherwise.

(c) Past performance of the Underlying Asset is not a reliable indicator of future performance

Any information about the past performance of the Underlying Asset at the time of the issuance of the Securities may not be a reliable indicator of the range of, or trends in, fluctuations in such Underlying Asset that may occur in the future. The level of the Underlying Asset (and of components included in such Underlying Asset) may go down as well as up throughout the term of the Securities. Such fluctuations may affect the value of and return on the Securities. There can be no assurance as to the future performance or movement of the Underlying Asset.

Any such consequence could have a material adverse effect on the value of and return on any such Securities.

(d) Non-Scheduled Trading Days or Market Disruption Events may adversely affect the value of and return on the Securities

If a scheduled date on which the level of the Underlying Asset is observed or determined falls on a day which is not a Scheduled Trading Day for such Underlying Asset, then the relevant date may be postponed.

Further, if the Issuer determines that a Market Disruption Event in relation to the Underlying Asset has occurred which affects the observation or determination of the level of such Underlying Asset on any relevant day, then the relevant date may be postponed or the Issuer may determine the price or level of such Underlying Asset using one or more alternative provisions, or may ultimately determine the price or level of such Underlying Asset in its discretion.

Any such postponement and/or alternative determination of the price or level of the Underlying Asset may adversely affect the value of and return on the Securities. In the event that one or more scheduled dates on which the price or level of the Underlying Asset is observed or determined are postponed, the scheduled Maturity Date or other relevant payment date may also be postponed.

(e) A change in the composition or discontinuance of an Index could have a negative impact on the value of the Securities

The sponsor of an Index can add, delete or substitute the Components of such Index or make other methodological changes that could change the level of one or more Components. The changing of the Components of an Index may affect the level of such Index as a newly added Component may perform significantly worse or better than the Component it replaces, which in turn may adversely affect the value of and return on the Securities. The sponsor of an Index may also alter, discontinue or suspend calculation or dissemination of such Index. The sponsor of an Index will have no involvement in the offer and sale of the Securities and will have no obligation to any investor in such Securities. The sponsor of an Index may take any actions in respect of such Index without regard to the interests of the investor in the Securities, and any of these actions could have an adverse effect on the value of and return on the Securities.

(f) Occurrence of Index Adjustment Events

Upon determining that an Index Adjustment Event has occurred in relation to an Index (or an Administrator/Benchmark Event has occurred in respect of a Component of an Index), the Issuer has the discretion to make certain determinations and adjustments to account for such event including to (i) make adjustments to the terms of the Securities (without the consent of Securityholders), and/or (ii) if the Issuer determines that such adjustments would not achieve a commercially reasonable result for either the Issuer or the Securityholders, or it would be unlawful or would contravene applicable licensing requirements for the Issuer to perform the necessary calculations, the Issuer may select an Alternative Post-nominated Index to replace such Index. However, if the Issuer is unable to select an Alternative Post-nominated Index or determine an Adjustment Payment, or if the Issuer is able to select an Alternative Post-nominated Index and determine an Adjustment Payment but determines that any adjustments to the terms and conditions of the Securities will not achieve a commercially reasonable result for either the Issuer or the Securityholders, the Issuer has the discretion to cause an early redemption of the Securities. Any of such determinations may have an adverse effect on the value of and return on the Securities. Following such determination by the Issuer, no other amounts shall be payable in respect of the Securities on account of interest or otherwise.

(g) Returns on the Securities will not be the same as a direct investment in futures or options on the Index or in the underlying Components of the Index

An investment in the Securities linked to the Index is not the same as a direct investment in futures or option contracts on such Index nor any or all of the constituents included in such Index. In particular, investors will not benefit directly from any positive movements in the Index nor will investors benefit from any profits made as a direct result of an investment in such Index. Accordingly, changes in the performance of the Index may not result in comparable changes in the market value of or return on the Securities linked to such Index.

(h) Each of the Underlying Asset and the FX Rate is a "benchmark" under the Benchmark Regulation

The EU Regulation on indices used as benchmarks in financial instruments and financial contracts or to measure the performance of investment funds (the "Benchmark Regulation") applies to the contribution of input data to a "benchmark", the provision or administration of a "benchmark" and the use of a "benchmark" in the EU. Among other things, it (a) requires EU benchmark administrators to be authorised or registered as such and to comply with extensive requirements relating to the administration of "benchmarks" and (b) prohibits certain uses by EU supervised entities of "benchmarks" provided by EU administrators which are not authorised or registered in accordance with the Benchmark Regulation (or, if located outside of the EU, deemed equivalent or recognised or endorsed). The Benchmark Regulation applies to "benchmarks" such as interest rate indices as well as equity, commodity and foreign exchange rate indices and other indices, such as the Underlying Asset and the FX Rate, where it is used to (i) determine the amount payable under, or the value of, certain financial instruments (including the Securities or OTC derivatives listed on an EU regulated market, EU multilateral trading facility (MTF), EU organised trading facility (OTF) or "traded via a systematic internaliser"), (ii) determine the amount payable under certain financial contracts, or (iii) measure the performance of an investment fund.

The Benchmark Regulation could have a material impact on the Securities. For example:

- an index which is a "benchmark" may not be used in certain ways by an EU supervised entity if (subject to applicable transitional provisions) its administrator does not obtain authorisation or registration (or, if a non-EU entity, does not satisfy the "equivalence" conditions and is not "recognised" pending an equivalence decision). If the benchmark administrator does not obtain or maintain (as applicable) such authorisation or registration (or, if a non-EU entity, "equivalence" is not available and it is not recognised), then applicable fallbacks may apply in respect of the Securities, including that they may be redeemed prior to maturity; and
- the methodology or other terms of the benchmark could be changed in order to comply with the terms of the Benchmark Regulation, and such changes could reduce or increase the level or affect the volatility of the published level, and could lead to adjustments to the terms of the Securities, including potentially determination by the Issuer or the Calculation Agent of the level in its discretion.

(i) Occurrence of Administrator/Benchmark Event in respect of the Underlying Asset

If the Issuer determines that an Administrator/Benchmark Event has occurred in respect of the Underlying Asset, the relevant disruption fallbacks will apply in the order specified, provided that if it would be unlawful or would contravene applicable licensing requirements for the Issuer or the Calculation Agent to perform the actions prescribed in an applicable disruption fallback, the next applicable disruption fallback will apply.

If the last applicable disruption fallback does not provide a level of the Underlying Asset, then the Issuer may early redeem the Securities by payment of the Unscheduled Termination Amount. Any such determination may have an adverse effect on the value of and return on the Securities. Following a determination by the Issuer, no other amounts shall be payable in respect of the Securities on account of interest or otherwise.

(j) Correction of published levels

In the event that the relevant published levels of the Underlying Asset are subsequently corrected and such correction is published by the entity or sponsor responsible for publishing such levels, subject to such correction and publication occurring prior to a specified cut-off date in respect of the Securities, such corrected levels may be taken into account by the Issuer in any determination in relation to the Securities and/or the Issuer may make adjustments to the terms of the Securities, subject to the provisions of the relevant terms and conditions for the Securities. Where such corrected levels are lower than the original levels, this may have an adverse effect on the value of and return on the Securities.

(k) Specific risks associated with the Underlying Asset

(i) The Underlying Asset is a Credit Suisse proprietary index

The Underlying Asset, which is the Listed Private Equity Fund 12% TR Index (the "Index"), is a Credit Suisse proprietary index. The index level is calculated by Credit Suisse International as Index Calculation Agent (as defined under the Index Rules) and Credit Suisse International acting as Index Sponsor and Index Administrator (each as defined in the Index Rules) makes various determinations by reference to the Index Rules.

Further:

- In the normal course of business, the Issuer and/or its affiliates may have, or may have had, interests or positions, or may buy, sell or otherwise trade positions, in or relating to the Index and/or the constituents thereof, or may have invested, or may engage in transactions with others relating to any of these items and/or engaged in trading, brokerage and financing activities, as well as providing investment banking and financial advisory services in respect of the Index and/or the constituents thereof. Accordingly, the Issuer and/or any of its affiliates may at any time hold long or short positions, and may trade or otherwise effect transactions, for its own account or the accounts of its customers in respect of the Index and/or the constituents thereof. Such activity may, or may not, affect the level of the Index and consequently the value of the Securities, but Securityholders should be aware that a conflict of interest may arise.
- The Issuer and the Index Sponsor of the Index are affiliated entities and may face a conflict of interest between their obligations as Issuer and Index Sponsor, respectively, and their interests in another capacity. In such circumstances, the Issuer has various discretionary powers in connection with (a) certain determinations and valuations in respect of the Securities, and (b) the composition, the calculation of the level and other determinations in respect of the Index, exercise of any of which could have the effect of reducing the returns on the Securities to the Securityholders thereof. In particular, upon the occurrence of certain events which have an impact on the constituents of the Index (namely, market disruption events or other events affecting the constituents of the Index) the Issuer may exercise discretion in adjusting the calculation of the value of the Index or of any affected constituents. No assurance can be given that the resolution of such potential conflicts of interest may not be prejudicial to the interests of Securityholders

(ii) No operating history

The Index has limited operating history with no proven track record in achieving the stated investment objective. No assurance can be given that the allocation will perform in line with market benchmark, and the Index could underperform market benchmark and/or decline.

(iii) Publication of the Index

The Index level, in respect of an Index Calculation Day, is scheduled to be published on the immediately following Index Calculation Day. In certain circumstances, for example, if the Index Calculation Agent believes that there are circumstances that prevent the correct calculation of the Index, such publication may be delayed.

(iv) The Index relies on external data and data sources

The Index relies on data from external providers and data sources which have been selected and pre-defined by Credit Suisse International as Index Sponsor in an internal database maintained by it. The Index Sponsor may change the data providers and the data sources from time to time in accordance with its internal governance procedures provided that any new data provider or data source meets its requirements. There is a risk that this data may be inaccurate, delayed or not up to date or that the data feed to Credit Suisse International is impaired. Such impairment to either the data or the data feed could affect the performance or continued operability of the Index. The risk of such impairment may be borne by investors in products linked to the Index and Credit Suisse International may decide not to subsequently revise the Index (except where such impairment is caused by Credit Suisse International's negligence, fraud or wilful default). There is also a risk to the continuity of the Index in the event that the Index Sponsor ceases to exist. In the event that certain external data is not available, Credit Suisse International as calculation agent for the Index may determine the necessary data in order to maintain the continuity of the Index.

(v) The Index relies on Credit Suisse infrastructure and electronic systems

The Index relies on Credit Suisse infrastructure and electronic systems (including internal data feeds). Any breakdown or impairment to such infrastructure or electronic systems could affect the performance or continued operability of the Index. The risk of such breakdown or impairment shall be borne by investors in products linked to the Index unless except when caused by Credit Suisse International's negligence, fraud or wilful default. Neither Credit Suisse International nor its affiliates shall be under any liability to account for any loss or damage incurred by any person in connection with any change to, removal of or operational risks generated by the Index or its strategy except when caused by Credit Suisse International's negligence, fraud or wilful default.

(vi) Amendments to the Index Rules; Base Index Component Substitution; Withdrawal of the Index

The Index Sponsor may in consultation with the Index Calculation Agent and the Index Committee (who are also part of the Credit Suisse Group AG), supplement, amend (in whole or in part), revise, rebalance or withdraw the Index at any time if either (A) there is any event or circumstance that in the determination of the Index Sponsor makes it impossible or impracticable to calculate the Index pursuant to the Index Rules (B) a change to the Index Rules is required to address an error, ambiguity or omission, (C) the Index Sponsor determines that an Extraordinary Event has occurred, or (D) the Index Sponsor determines that a Fund Disruption Event has occurred.

Following any withdrawal of the Index the Index Sponsor may, but is not obliged to do so, replace the Index with a successor index and/or replace the Strategy with a similar successor strategy or an entirely new strategy at any time, as it deems appropriate in its discretion.

A supplement, amendment, revision or rebalancing may lead to a change in the way the Index is calculated or constructed and this may, in turn, affect the performance of the Index. Such changes may include, without limitation, substitution of the Base Index Component, or changes to the Index Strategy.

(vii) Discretion of the Index Sponsor

The Index Rules provide Credit Suisse International in its capacity as Index Sponsor the discretion to make certain calculations, determinations, and amendments from time to time (for example, on the occurrence of an Index Disruption Event as described below). Such discretion may be exercised without the consent of the investor and may have an adverse impact on the financial return of an investment linked to the Index. To the extent permitted by applicable regulation, Credit Suisse International and its affiliates shall be under no liability to account for any loss or damage to any person arising pursuant to its exercise of or omission to exercise any such discretion except where such loss or damage is caused by Credit Suisse International's negligence, fraud or wilful default.

(viii) Index Disruption Events

Where, in the determination of the Index Sponsor, an Index Disruption Event has occurred or is existing and subsisting in respect of any Index Calculation Day (a "Disrupted Day"), the Index Sponsor may in respect of such Disrupted Day (A) suspend the calculation and publication of the Index value; (B) determine the Index value on the basis of estimated or adjusted data and publish an estimated level of the Index value and/or; (C) take any other action, including but not limited to, designation of alternative price sources, reconstitution of the Index or temporary close-out of option positions. Any such action could have an adverse impact on the financial return of an investment linked to the Index. Such action may not be re-considered in the event that actual or more accurate data subsequently becomes available.

(ix) Potential Adjustment Events

Where, in the determination of the Index Sponsor, a Potential Adjustment Event has occurred in respect of the Base Index Component which is a mutual fund, and that such Potential Adjustment Event has a diluting or concentrative effect on the value of the relevant Base Index Component, the Index Sponsor may (i) make adjustment(s), if any, to the relevant Base Index Component, as the Index Sponsor determines appropriate to account for the diluting or concentrative effect (provided that no adjustments will be made to account solely for changes in volatility, expected dividends, stock loan rate or liquidity relative to the relevant Fund), and (ii) determine the effective date(s) of the adjustment(s).

(x) The Index Sponsor has discretion to supplement, amend, revise, rebalance or withdraw the Index; Base Index Component Substitution

The occurrence of certain events may affect the investibility of the Index and could result in additional risks or costs for Credit Suisse International. As such, the Index Sponsor has discretion under the Index Rules to supplement, amend, revise, rebalance or withdraw the Index following the occurrence of certain events as well as to substitute the Base Index Component. Whilst such discretion is required in order to ensure that the notional investments entered by the Index remain a viable investment proposition for a hypothetical investor seeking to replicate the Index Strategy or to allow the Index Sponsor to meet its own risk management requirements, the exercise of such discretions will have the effect of, amongst other things, transferring the risks and costs resulting from such events from Credit Suisse International to investors in the products linked to the Index.

(xi) The Index is sensitive to the volatility of the Base Index

Due to the in-built volatility control mechanism, the exposure of the Index to the Base Index varies according to the volatility of the Base Index. As volatility rises, the Index reduces exposure to the Base Index and conversely, as volatility falls, the Index's exposure to the Base Index increases. Therefore the Index may underperform relative to the Base Index where:

- (i) High volatility followed by positive performance of the Base Index: here an investor would not benefit as greatly as an investor who had a direct exposure to the Base Index because the volatility control mechanism is likely to have reduced the exposure to the Base Index to a percentage below 100 per cent.
 - (ii) Low volatility followed by negative performance of the Base Index: here an investor could lose more than an investor who had a direct exposure to the Base Index because the volatility control mechanism is likely to have increased the exposure to the Base Index to a percentage above 100 per cent.
- (xii) Price of Base Index Component may be influenced by asymmetries in demand and supply

The price of the Base Index Component may be influenced by external market factors beyond the control of the Issuer, such as asymmetries in demand and supply for exposure. For example, any purchases or disposals of the constituent assets underlying the Base Index Component may be contingent upon there being a market for such assets. In cases where there is not a ready market, or where there is only a limited market, the prices at which such assets may be purchased or sold may vary significantly (such variation between the prices at which the asset can be bought or sold is referred to as a "bid-offer spread"). If trying to dispose of an asset in a limited market, the effect of the bid-offer spread may be that the value realised on a disposal is markedly less than the previously reported value of the asset. This will have an impact on the value of the Base Index Component and, consequently, the Index Value.

(xiii) Potential conflicts of interest

Credit Suisse International expects to engage in trading activities related to constituents of the Index during the course of its normal business for both its proprietary accounts and/or in client related transactions. Such trading activities may involve the sale or purchase of index constituents, assets referencing the index constituents and/or derivative financial instruments relating to the constituents of the Index. These trading activities may present a conflict between the interests of investors with exposure to the Index and Credit Suisse International's own interests. These trading activities, if they have an influence on the share prices or levels (as applicable) of the Index constituents may have an adverse effect on the performance of the Index.

Credit Suisse International may hedge its obligations under any investments linked to the Index by buying or selling shares, bonds or derivative securities linked to the Index constituents. Although they are not expected to, any of these hedging activities may adversely affect the market price of such securities and, therefore, the performance of the Index. It is possible that Credit Suisse International could receive substantial returns from these hedging activities while the performance of the Index declines.

Credit Suisse International may also engage in trading shares, assets referencing the index constituents or derivatives securities in the Index constituents on a regular basis as part of our general broker-dealer and other businesses, for proprietary accounts, for other accounts under management or to facilitate transactions for customers. Any of these activities could adversely affect the market price of such securities and therefore the performance of the Index.

Credit Suisse International may have and in the future may publish research reports with respect to the index constituents or asset classes which may express opinions or provide recommendations that either support or are inconsistent with investments into the Index. This research should not be viewed as a recommendation or endorsement of the Index in any way and investors must make their own independent investigation of the merits of this investment.

Credit Suisse International acts as Index Calculation Agent and determines the Index value at any time, and Credit Suisse International may also serve as the calculation agent for investment products linked to the Index. Credit Suisse International will, among other things, decide valuation, final settlement amount and make any other relevant calculations or determinations in respect of the investment products.

To the extent that the prices of any Index constituents are unavailable and/or there is a breakdown in the infrastructure used by the Index Calculation Agent, Index values may, in accordance with the Index Rules, be calculated and published by Credit Suisse International with reference to estimated or adjusted data.

With respect to any of the activities described above, except as required by applicable law and regulation (and unless caused by Credit Suisse International's negligence, fraud or wilful default), Credit Suisse International shall not be liable to any investor in products linked to the Index.

(xiv) Currency Risk of the Index

Investors may be exposed to currency risks because (A) the Base Index Component underlying investments may be denominated or priced in currencies other than the currency in which the Index is denominated, or (B) the Index and/or such Base Index Component may be denominated in currencies other than the currency of the country in which the investor is resident. The Index levels may therefore increase or decrease as a result of fluctuations in those currencies.

(xv) Index performance is linked to the tomorrow-next interest rate

The Cash Component of the notional portfolio of the Index is linked to the rate of interest that could be earned on a notional investment in the Base Currency rate. A fall in this rate may adversely impact the performance of the Index.

(xvi) Risk associated with leverage

The Index may comprise of leveraged positions in the Base Index Component through the volatility control mechanism. While such strategies and techniques may increase the opportunity to achieve higher returns on the amounts invested, they will generally also increase the risk of loss.

(xvii) The performance of a fund is subject to many factors, including the fund strategies, underlying fund investments, the fund manager and other factors

A fund, and any underlying fund components in which it may invest, may utilise strategies such as short-selling, leverage, securities lending and borrowing, investment in sub-investment grade or non-readily realisable investments, uncovered options transactions, options and futures transactions and foreign exchange transactions and the use of concentrated portfolios, each of which could, in certain circumstances, magnify adverse market developments and losses. Funds, and any underlying fund components in which it may invest, may make investments in markets that are volatile and/or illiquid and it may be difficult or costly for positions therein to be opened or liquidated. No assurance can be given relating to the present or future performance of a fund and any underlying fund component in which it may invest. The performance of a fund and any underlying fund component in which it may invest is dependent on the performance of the fund manager in selecting underlying fund components and the management of the relevant component in respect of the underlying fund components. No assurance can be given that these persons will succeed in meeting the investment objectives of the fund, that any analytical model used thereby will prove to be correct or that any assessments of the short-term or long-term prospects, volatility and correlation of the types of investments in which a fund has or may invest will prove accurate.

The following is an overview of certain particular risks in relation to funds:

- Illiquidity of fund investments: The net asset value of a fund will fluctuate with, among other changes, changes in market rates of interest, general economic conditions, economic conditions in particular industries, the condition of financial markets and the performance of a fund's underlying investments. Investments by a fund in certain underlying assets will provide limited liquidity. Interests in a fund may be subject to certain transfer restrictions, including, without limitation, the requirement to obtain the fund manager's consent (which may be given or withheld in its discretion). Furthermore, the relevant fund offering documents typically provide that interests therein may be voluntarily redeemed only on specific dates of certain calendar months, quarters or years and only if an investor has given the requisite number of days' prior notice to the fund manager. A fund may also reserve the right to suspend redemption rights or make in kind distributions in the event of market disruptions. A fund is likely to retain a portion of the redemption proceeds pending the completion of the annual audit of the financial statements of such fund, resulting in considerable delay before the full redemption proceeds are received. Such illiquidity may adversely affect the price and timing of any liquidation of a fund investment.
- Reliance on trading models: Some of the strategies and techniques used by the fund manager may employ a high degree of reliance on statistical trading models developed from historical analysis of the performance or correlations of certain companies, securities, industries, countries, or markets. There can be no assurance that historical performance that is used to determine such statistical trading models will be a good indication of future performance of a fund. If future performance or such correlations vary significantly from the assumptions in such statistical models, then the fund manager may not achieve its intended results or investment performance.
- Diversification: The number and diversity of investments held by a fund may be limited, even where such fund holds investments in other funds – particularly where such underlying funds hold similar investments or follow similar investment strategies.
- Fund leverage: The fund manager of a fund may utilise leverage techniques, including the use of borrowed funds, repurchase agreements, swaps and options and other derivative transactions. While such strategies and techniques may increase the opportunity to achieve higher returns on the amounts invested, they will generally also increase the risk of loss.
- Trading limitations and frequency: Suspensions or limits for securities listed on a public exchange could render certain strategies followed by a fund difficult to complete or continue. The frequency of a fund's trading may result in portfolio turnover and brokerage commissions that are greater than other investment entities of similar size.
- Valuations: The valuation of a fund is generally controlled by the fund manager. Valuations are performed in accordance with the terms and conditions governing the fund. Such valuations may be based upon the unaudited financial records of the fund and any accounts pertaining thereto. Such valuations may be preliminary calculations of the net asset values of the fund and accounts. The fund may hold a significant number of investments which are illiquid or otherwise not actively traded and in respect of which reliable prices may be difficult to obtain. In consequence, the fund may vary certain quotations for such investments held by the fund in order to reflect its judgement as to the fair value thereof. Therefore, valuations may be subject to subsequent adjustments upward or downward. Uncertainties as to the valuation of the fund assets and/or accounts may have an adverse effect on the net asset value of the fund where such judgements regarding valuations prove to be incorrect.

- Dependence on the expertise of key persons: The performance of a fund will depend greatly on the experience of the investment professionals associated with the fund manager. The loss of one or more of such individuals could have a material adverse effect on the performance of a fund.

3. Risks associated with conflicts of interest between the Issuer and the Securityholders

(a) Calculations and determinations under the Securities

In making calculations and determinations with regard to the Securities, there may be a difference of interest between the Securityholders and the Issuer. Save where otherwise provided in the terms and conditions, the Issuer is required to act in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner but the Issuer does not have any obligations of agency or trust for any investors and has no fiduciary obligations towards them. In particular, the Issuer and its affiliated entities may have interests in other capacities (such as other business relationships and activities). Prospective investors should be aware that any determination made by the Issuer may have a negative impact on the value of and return on the Securities.

Each of the Issuer, the Dealer or any of their respective affiliates may have existing or future business relationships with each other (including, but not limited to, lending, depository, derivative counterparty, risk management, advisory and banking relationships), and when acting in such other capacities the Issuer, the Dealer or any of their respective affiliates may pursue actions and take steps that it deems necessary or appropriate to protect its interests arising therefrom without regard to the consequences for any particular Securityholder.

(b) Hedging and dealing activities in relation to the Securities and Underlying Asset

In the ordinary course of its business the Issuer and/or any of its affiliates may effect transactions for its own account or for the account of its customers and may enter into one or more hedging transactions with respect to the Securities or related derivatives. In connection with such hedging or market-making activities or with respect to proprietary or other trading activities by the Issuer and/or any of its affiliates, the Issuer and/or any of its affiliates may enter into transactions in or in respect of the Underlying Asset or related derivatives which may affect the market price, liquidity, value of or return on the Securities and which could be adverse to the interest of the relevant Securityholders.

For example, the Issuer (itself or through an affiliate) may hedge the Issuer's obligations under the Securities by purchasing futures and/or other instruments linked to the Underlying Asset or other Components underlying the Underlying Asset. The Issuer (or affiliate) may adjust its hedge by, among other things, purchasing or selling any of the foregoing, and perhaps other instruments linked to the Underlying Asset or (if applicable) the Components, at any time and from time to time, and may unwind the hedge by selling any of the foregoing on or before the maturity date for the Securities. The Issuer (or affiliate) may also enter into, adjust and unwind hedging transactions relating to other securities whose returns are linked to changes in the level, price, rate or other applicable value of the Underlying Asset or (if applicable) the Components. Any of these hedging activities may adversely affect the level, price, rate or other applicable value of the Underlying Asset - directly or (if applicable) indirectly by affecting the level, price, rate or other applicable value of underlying Components - and therefore the value of and return on the Securities. It is possible that the Issuer (or affiliate) could receive substantial returns with respect to such hedging activities while the value of and return on the Securities may decline.

Moreover, the Issuer (or affiliate) may also engage in trading in one or more of the Underlying Asset or (if applicable) the Components or the instruments whose returns are linked to the Underlying Asset or (if applicable) the Components, for its proprietary accounts, for other accounts under its management or to facilitate transactions, including block transactions, on behalf of customers. Any of these activities of the Issuer (or affiliate) could adversely affect the level, price, rate or other applicable value of the Underlying Asset - directly or (if applicable) indirectly by affecting the level, price, rate or other applicable value of underlying Components - and therefore, the value of and return on the Securities. The Issuer (or affiliate) may issue or underwrite, other securities or financial or derivative instruments with returns linked to changes in the level, price, rate or other applicable value of the Underlying Asset or (if applicable) one or more of the Components, as applicable. By introducing competing products into the marketplace in this manner, the Issuer (or affiliate) could adversely affect the value of and return on the Securities.

(c) Confidential information relating to the Underlying Asset

The Issuer and its affiliates (and any of their employees) may from time to time, by virtue of their status as underwriter, advisor or otherwise, possess or have access to information relating to the Underlying Asset and any derivative instruments referencing them. None of the Issuers or its affiliates will be obliged (and may be subject to legal prohibition) to disclose any such information to an investor in the Securities.

CREDIT SUISSE VOLATILITY TARGET INDICES

INDEX DESCRIPTION

Defined terms used but not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Index Rules relating to the Index. Such rules are, subject to execution of a non-disclosure agreement, available upon request. References to Credit Suisse herein are to Credit Suisse International and/or its affiliates.

INDEX DESCRIPTION

The Listed Private Equity Fund 12% TR Index (the "Index") is a rules-based index that measures the rate of return of a Credit Suisse International proprietary strategy (the "Strategy") which aims to provide an indirect exposure to equities, through a notional exposure to a mutual fund. The Strategy offers:

- A notional exposure to 1 mutual fund (whose underlying investment strategy is intended to give its respective investors exposure to equity underlyings);
- A volatility control mechanism that adjusts the exposure between the Base Index and a notional cash deposit.

The Index is constructed on "notional" investments and described as a "synthetic portfolio" as there is no actual asset held in respect of the Index. The Index simply reflects a trading strategy, calculated using the value of assumed investments in each of the relevant components.

The Index, and by extension, the Base Index, measures the rate of return of a hypothetical portfolio consisting of long positions in the Base Index Component, as specified in "Table 1: Base Index Component". Long positions refer to the practice of buying an asset with the intention of subsequently selling it at a later stage.

The Index can include "leveraged" exposure to the asset classes. Leverage refers to the practice of using financial derivatives or debt to amplify returns, by allocating more than 100% of the Index to the asset classes. The Volatility Control Weight (as defined below) of the Base Index is capped at 120% (see Section: Volatility Control Methodology below).

The Index is constructed as a "Total Return" asset. Total Return means the rate of return of the Index is measured taking into account not only the capital appreciation of the notional assets comprising the constituent components of the Index but also the income generated by those assets in the form of interest and dividends as it assumes that all such distributions are reinvested in the Index. For instance, in order to replicate a Total Return equity index, any prospective investor would need to purchase the portfolio of securities representing that specific equity index, and to reinvest all dividend payments.

The Index implements a mechanism of risk control based on its "volatility". Volatility is a measure of the variation of the level/ price of an asset over time, as further described in Section: Volatility Control Methodology.

Main roles

Credit Suisse International is the sponsor of the Index (the "Index Sponsor"). The Index Sponsor also acts as the administrator (the "Index Administrator") of the Index for the purposes of Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 8 June 2016 on indices used as benchmarks in financial instruments and financial contracts or to measure the performance of investment funds (the "BMR") or any successor or additional benchmarks legislation or regulation applicable in the United Kingdom. The Index Sponsor makes various determinations in accordance with the Index Rules. Representatives of the Index Sponsor comprise the Index Committee.

The Index Administrator may make any change or modification to the Index and/or the Index Rules which may be necessary or desirable for the purposes of ensuring compliance by the Index Administrator with its obligations under the BMR and any successor or additional benchmarks legislation or regulation applicable in the United Kingdom.

Credit Suisse International, acting through its Risk Department is the calculation agent for the Index (the "Index Calculation Agent"). The Risk Department is segregated from the sales, trading, structuring and other front office businesses of Credit Suisse International. The Index Calculation Agent will, in accordance with the Index Rules, calculate and publish the value of the Index (the "Index Value") in respect of each day on which the Index is scheduled to be published (each an "Index Calculation Day").

All calculations, determinations and exercises of discretion made by the Index Sponsor or the Index Calculation Agent will be made in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and (where there is a corresponding applicable regulatory obligation) shall take into account whether fair treatment is achieved by any such calculation, determination and exercise of discretion in accordance with its applicable regulatory obligations.

Assets Included in the Index

The Index measures the rate of return of a hypothetical portfolio consisting of a notional investment to the Base Index (the "Index Component") and an amount held in cash (the "Cash Component") in respect of any amounts not invested in the Base Index. The Base Index measures the performance of a notional investment in a synthetic portfolio consisting of 1 asset (each a "Base Index Component") as specified in Table 1: Base Index Component and an amount in the Cash Component.

Table 1: Base Index Component

Index Methodology

Index

The Index measures the rate of return of a hypothetical portfolio consisting of:

- A notional investment to the Base Index, as described in Section: Base Index;
- A notional investment in the Cash Component in respect of any amounts not invested in the Base Index.

The allocation mechanism between the Base Index and the Cash Component is further described in Section: Volatility Control Methodology.

The Index is denominated in SEK (the "Base Currency") and is calculated net of 0.00% per annum Index Fee.

The Index does not incorporate any transaction costs.

The Index is constructed as a Total Return Index.

Base Index

The Base Index measures the total rate of return of a notional investment in a synthetic portfolio consisting of one Base Index Component which is a mutual fund.

The effective weight of each Base Index Component (each a "Weight" and combined, the "Weights") will be initially set to the Initial Weight as specified in Table 2: Base Index Component Initial Weight and Costs, under the column entitled "Initial Weight". Such Weights determine the notional exposure of the Base Index to each Base Index Component.

The Base Index is denominated in SEK (the "Base Currency").

The Base Index does not incorporate any access costs or transaction costs.

Access costs are defined as the access cost for the Base Index Component, specified in Table 2: Base Index Component Weight and Costs, under the column entitled "Holding Fee";

The Base Index performance will take into account synthetic reinvestment of dividends for mutual funds net of the withholding tax as of an Index Calculation Day as specified in the Index Rules. The withholding tax is expected to be 0.0% as of the Index Launch Date.

The Base Index is constructed as a Total Return asset. As such:

- If the aggregate allocation to Base Index Component defined as Total Return, as specified in Table 1: Index Components, under the column entitled "Return Type", is lower than or equal to 100%, then the remaining allocation will be invested in the Cash Component; and
- Otherwise, if the allocation to the Base Index is greater than 100% (i.e. incorporates leverage), the funding cost (the "Funding Component"), being the aggregate of the Funding Rate and the Funding Spread in the relevant currency, as specified in Table 3: Funding Rate, under the columns entitled "Funding Rate" and "Funding Spread", will be deducted from the allocation exceeding 100%.

Table 3: Funding Rate

Currency	Funding Rate	Funding Basis	Funding Spread
SEK	The rate for Tomorrow Next deposits in SEK as displayed on Reuters page "STIBOR=" and as published, announced, displayed, reported or disseminated by the relevant data provider or data source chosen by the Index Sponsor and recorded in its internal database as the source from which the Index Sponsor collects input data for the purposes of the Index	360	0.00%

Volatility Control Methodology

The Index targets a volatility level below/at or around 12% (the "Volatility Control") by allocating its exposure to the Base Index, based on the realised volatility (the "Realised Volatility") of the Base Index (calculated as the Realised Volatility over the preceding 40 Index Calculation Days). The target volatility controlled weight assigned to the Base Index (the "Target Volatility Control Weight") on any Index Calculation Day is equal to the ratio of the Volatility Control to the Realised Volatility of the Base Index calculated in respect of the Index Calculation Day falling 2 Index Calculation Days prior to such day. Realised volatility is calculated formulaically with reference to the magnitude of daily movements (in either direction) for the Base Index. For example, the Base Index would have a higher realized volatility if its level moved by 2% each day than if its level only moved by 0.50% each day. The weight assigned to the Base Index on any Index Calculation Day is equal to the Target Volatility Control Weight capped at 120%.

1. Introduction

The rules for each Credit Suisse Volatility Target Index are constituted under the Index Specific Rules for such index which incorporates by reference the Master Index Rules of the Credit Suisse Volatility Target Indices dated 19 November 2014 and should be read in conjunction therewith.

This document is published by Credit Suisse International of One Cabot Square, London, E14 4QJ, United Kingdom.

1.1. What are the Credit Suisse Volatility Target Indices?

The Credit Suisse Volatility Target Indices are rules-based investible indices constructed by the Index Sponsor and governed by the Index Rules. The Index Rules for each Credit Suisse Volatility Target Index are comprised of the Master Index Rules and the Index Specific Rules for the relevant index. Each Credit Suisse Volatility Target Index has its own rules-based investment strategy as defined in the Index Specific Rules (the “Strategy”) which is comprised of:

- An exposure to one or several underlying assets (each an “Index Component” and together the “Index Components”) as defined in the Index Specific Rules; and
- A volatility control mechanism that adjusts the exposure based on realised volatility of the Base Index as defined in these Master Index Rules and to the extent this is applicable pursuant to the Index Specific Rules.

4. Publication of the Index Value

The Index Calculation Agent retains the right to delay publication of the Index if it reasonably believes there are circumstances that prevent the correct calculation of such Index.

The Index will be calculated by the Index Calculation Agent and published on Bloomberg. Calculation and publication of the Index in respect of each Index Calculation Day t is expected to take place on the Index Calculation Day following the relevant Index Calculation Day t .

In the event that the Index Value is published by the Index Calculation Agent and is amended after it is initially published, the amended Index Value will be considered the official fixing level and used in all applicable calculations. In the event that the published value of any Index Component, the Cash Rate, or any Funding Rate or other Index input that could impact a calculation of the level of the Index, is changed or amended in respect of a time period prior to the day on which the Index Value is being determined, the Index Calculation Agent shall be under no obligation to recalculate the Index Value or make any corresponding adjustment to the Index Value in order to take account of such change by altering the Index Value. The Index Calculation Agent, in consultation with the Index Committee, nonetheless will have the discretion to make appropriate adjustments in good faith and in order to achieve a commercially reasonable outcome and (where there is a corresponding applicable regulatory obligation) shall take into account whether fair treatment is achieved by any such adjustment in accordance with its applicable regulatory obligations, in any particular situation, in light of the facts and circumstances of such situation.

The Index may be replaced by a successor index.

8. Important Disclaimer Information

8.1. Credit Suisse

This disclaimer extends to Credit Suisse International (“CS”), its affiliates or its designate in any of its capacities. CS is the sponsor of the index (the “Index Sponsor”). The Index Sponsor also acts as the administrator (the “Index Administrator”) of the Index for the purposes of Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 8 June 2016 on indices used as benchmarks in financial instruments and financial contracts or to measure of the performance of investment funds (the “BMR”) or any successor or additional benchmarks legislation or regulation applicable in the United Kingdom.

This document is published by CS. CS is authorised by the Prudential Regulation Authority (“PRA”) and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (“FCA”) and the PRA. Notwithstanding that CS is so regulated, the rules of neither the FCA nor the PRA are incorporated into this document.

The Index Sponsor and the Index Calculation Agent are part of the same group. CS or its affiliates may also offer securities or other financial products (“Investment Products”) the return of which is linked to the performance of the Index. CS or its affiliates may, therefore, in each of its capacities face a conflict in its obligations carrying out such role with investors in the Investment Products.

In addition, the Index Rules are not to be used or considered as an offer or solicitation to buy or subscribe for such Investment Products nor is it to be considered to be or to contain any advice or a recommendation with respect to such products. Before making an investment decision in relation to such products one should refer to the prospectus or other disclosure document relating to such products.

The Index Rules are published for information purposes only and CS and its affiliates expressly disclaim (to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and regulation except for where loss is caused by the Fault of CS or its affiliates) all warranties (express, statutory or implied) regarding this document and the Index, including but not limited to all warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose of use and all warranties arising from course of performance, course of dealing or usage of trade and their equivalents under applicable laws of any jurisdiction unless losses result from the breach of such warranties where such losses are caused by the Fault of CS or its affiliates. “Fault” means negligence, fraud or willful default.

CS is described as Index Sponsor, Index Administrator and Index Calculation Agent under the Index Rules. CS may, at its discretion and in compliance with applicable law and regulation, transfer or delegate to another entity, some or all of the functions and calculations associated with the role of Index Administrator, Index Sponsor and Index Calculation Agent respectively under the Index Rules.

CS as Index Sponsor is the final authority on the Index and the interpretation and application of the Index Rules.

CS as Index Sponsor may in accordance with the conditions and other terms specified in these Index Rules and in compliance with applicable law and regulation, supplement, amend (in whole or in part), revise or withdraw the Index Rules at any time. The Index Rules may change without prior notice. Such a supplement, amendment, revision or withdrawal may lead to a change in the way an Index is calculated or constructed and may affect the Index in other ways.

CS will apply the Index Rules in its discretion acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and (where there is a corresponding applicable regulatory obligation) shall act independently and honestly in its capacity as Index Sponsor and take into account whether fair treatment is achieved by any such calculation, determination and exercise of discretion in accordance with its applicable regulatory obligations, and in doing so may rely upon other sources of market information.

Neither CS as Index Sponsor nor CS as Index Administrator nor CS as Index Calculation Agent warrants or guarantees the accuracy or timeliness of calculations of Index Values or the availability of an Index Value on any particular date or at any particular time.

The Index relies on data from external data providers and data sources which have been selected and pre-defined by CS as Index Sponsor and the relevant selection criteria and pre-defined data providers and data sources are stored in an internal database maintained by the CS. CS as Index Sponsor may change the data providers and the data sources from time to time in accordance with its internal governance procedures provided that any new data provider or data source meets its requirements.

While CS as Index Sponsor intends to use well established and reputable data providers, there is a risk that this data may be inaccurate, delayed or not up to date. There is also a risk that while the data is accurate, the data feed to CS is impaired. Such impairment to either the data or the data feed could affect the performance or continued operability of the Index.

Neither CS nor any of its affiliates (including their respective officers, employees and delegates) shall be under any liability to any party on account of any loss suffered by such party (however such loss may have been incurred) in connection with anything done, determined, interpreted, amended or selected (or omitted to be done, determined or selected) by it in connection with the Index and the Index Rules unless such loss is caused by CS's or any of its affiliates' Fault. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing and unless caused by CS's or any of its affiliates' Fault, neither CS nor any of its affiliates shall be liable for any loss suffered by any party as a result of any determination, calculation, interpretation, amendment or selection it makes (or fails to make) in relation to the construction or the valuation of the Index and the application of the Index Rules and, once made, neither CS nor any of its affiliates shall be under any obligation to revise any calculation, determination, amendment, interpretation and selection made by it for any reason. Neither CS nor any of its affiliates makes any warranty or representation whatsoever, express or implied, as to the results to be obtained from the use of the Index, or as to the performance and/or the value thereof at any time (past, present or future).

The Index Strategy is a proprietary strategy of the Index Sponsor. The Index Strategy is subject to change at any time by the Index Sponsor but subject to consultation with the Index Committee or otherwise as required by applicable law and regulations. Neither CS nor its affiliates shall be under any liability to any party on account of any loss suffered by such party, unless such loss is caused by CS's Fault, in connection with any change in any such strategy, or determination or omission in respect of such strategy.

Neither CS nor any of its affiliates is under any obligation to monitor whether or not an Index Disruption Event has occurred and shall not be liable for any losses unless caused by CS's Fault resulting from (i) any determination that an Index Disruption Event has occurred or has not occurred, (ii) the timing relating to the determination that an Index Disruption Event has occurred or (iii) any actions taken or not taken by CS or any of its affiliates as a result of such determination.

Unless otherwise specified, CS shall make all calculations, determinations, amendments, interpretations and selections in respect of the Index. Neither CS nor any of its affiliates (including their respective officers, employees and delegates) shall have any responsibility for good faith errors or omissions in its calculations, determinations, amendments, interpretations and selections as provided in the Index Rules unless caused by CS's Fault. The calculations, determinations, amendments, interpretations and selections of CS shall be made by it in accordance with the Index Rules, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and (where there is a corresponding applicable regulatory obligation) shall take into account whether fair treatment is achieved by any such calculation, determination, amendment, interpretation and selections in accordance with its applicable regulatory obligations (having regard in each case to the criteria stipulated herein and (where relevant) on the basis of information provided to or obtained by employees or officers of CS responsible for making the relevant calculations, determinations, amendments, interpretations and selections). For the avoidance of doubt, any calculations or determinations made by CS under the Index Rules on an estimated basis may not be revised following the making of such calculation or determination.

No person may reproduce or disseminate the Index Rules, any Index Value and any other information contained in this document without the prior written consent of CS or its affiliates. The Index Rules are not intended for distribution to, or use by any person in a jurisdiction where such distribution or use is prohibited by law or regulation. No one other than CS or its affiliates is permitted to use the Index Rules or any Index Value in connection with the writing, trading, marketing, or promotion of any financial instruments or products or to create any indices.

CS does not seek to exclude or restrict any duty or liability it may have to a client under the regulatory system (as defined in the FCA Handbook) and these disclaimers should be construed accordingly. These disclaimers are subject to mandatory provisions of applicable law and regulation which apply to the Index Administrator or (where CS is the Index Calculation Agent) the Index Calculation Agent and nothing in these disclaimers shall exclude or restrict liability to a client to the extent such exclusion or restriction is not permitted by such law or regulation. Save for the foregoing these disclaimers shall apply to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and regulation.

The Index Administrator may make any change or modification to the Index and/or the Index Rules which may be necessary or desirable for the purposes of ensuring compliance by the Index Administrator with its obligations under the BMR and any successor or additional benchmarks legislation or regulation applicable in the United Kingdom.

The Index Rules and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Index Rules shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law.

Vilka nyckelrisker är specifika för Emittenten?

Emittenten är föremål för följande nyckelrisker:

1. Likviditetsrisk till följd av potentiell oförmåga att låna eller få tillgång till kapitalmarknaderna på lämpliga gynnsamma villkor (inklusive på grund av negativa värderingar i kreditvärdigheten) eller att sälja dess tillgångar. Detta kan också bero på ökade likviditetskostnader. CS förlitar sig väsentligt på sin insättningsbas för finansiering, som kanske inte fortsätter att vara en stabil finansieringskälla över tid.
2. Risker till följd av effekterna av marknadsvängningar och volatilitet på CS:s investeringsverksamhet (mot vilka dess hedgningsstrategier kanske inte visar sig vara effektiva). Spridningen av COVID-19 har förorsakat störningar i globala försörjningsled och ekonomiska aktiviteter; detta förväntas ha en väsentlig inverkan på den globala ekonomin åtminstone under det första halvåret 2020 och kommer troligen att påverka CS finansiella utveckling, inklusive förväntade kreditförluster, handelsintäkter, nettoränteutgifter och potentiella bedömningar av goodwill-poster. CS bevakar noga de potentiella effekterna och inverkan på dess rörelse, verksamheten och finansiella utveckling, inklusive likviditet och kapitalanvändning, men det är dock svårt att vid denna tidpunkt fullt ut förutse omfattningen på grund av den snabba utvecklingen av denna osäkra situation. CS är också exponerad mot andra ogynnsamma ekonomiska, monetära, politiska, legala, regulatoriska och andra utvecklingar i de länder där det verkar (liksom länder där CS för närvarande inte bedriver verksamhet), inklusive osäkerhetsfaktorer avseende eventuell avveckling av referensräntor. CS:s betydande positioner inom fastighetssektorn - och andra stora och koncentrerade positioner - kan också utsätta det för större förluster. Många av dessa marknadsriskfaktorer, inklusive inverkan av COVID-19, kan öka andra risker, inklusive CS:s kreditriskexponeringar, som finns i en stor mängd olika transaktioner och motparter och för vilka det kan ha felaktig eller ofullständig information. Dessa förvärras av ogynnsamma ekonomiska förhållanden och marknadsvolatilitet, inklusive till följd av eventuella brister från stora finansiella institutioner (eller eventuella problem relaterade därmed).
3. CS:s förmåga att genomföra sin nuvarande strategi, som bygger på ett antal nyckelantaganden, är föremål för olika faktorer utanför dess kontroll, inklusive marknadsförhållanden, ekonomiska förhållanden och lagändringar. Genomförandet av CS:s strategi kan öka exponeringen för vissa risker, inklusive kreditrisker, marknadsrisker, operativa risker och regulatoriska risker. Genomförandet av CS:s strategi för förvärv och andra liknande transaktioner utsätter det för risken att det kan påta sig oväntade skulder (inklusive juridiska problem och regelefterlevnadsproblem), samt svårigheter i samband med integrering av förvärvade företag i sina befintliga verksamheter.
4. Lands-, regional- och politisk risk i de regioner där CS har klienter eller motparter, vilket kan påverka deras förmåga att fullgöra sina skyldigheter gentemot CS. Delvis på grund av att ett led i dess strategi är att öka CS:s private banking-verksamhet i tillväxtmarknadsländer, kan det möta ökad exponering för ekonomisk instabilitet i dessa länder, vilket kan leda till betydande förluster. Relaterade fluktuationer i valutakurser för valutor (särskilt för den amerikanska dollarn) kan också påverka CS.
5. En mängd olika operativa risker till följd av otillräckliga eller misslyckade interna processer, personer eller system eller från externa händelser, inklusive cybersäkerhet och annan informationsteknologi. CS förlitar sig starkt på ekonomiska, redovisnings- och andra databehandlingssystem, som är varierande och komplexa, och kan möta ytterligare teknologirelaterade risker på grund av den globala karaktären i dess verksamheter. CS är därmed exponerad mot risker som uppstår till följd av mänskliga misstag, bedrägerier, missbruk, oavsiktlig teknisk fel, cyberattacker och informations- eller säkerhetsbrott. CS:s verksamhet utsätts också för risker från bristande efterlevnad av befintliga policyer eller regleringar, anställdas missförstånd eller försumlighet och bedrägeri. CS:s befintliga riskhanteringsförfaranden och policyer kanske inte alltid är effektiva mot sådana risker, särskilt på mycket volatila marknader, och kanske inte till fullo mildrar dess riskexponering på alla marknader eller mot alla typer av risker. Dessutom kan CS:s faktiska resultat skilja sig väsentligt från dess uppskattningar och värderingar som bygger på bedömning och tillgänglig information och förlitar sig på förutsägbara modeller och processer. Detsamma gäller för CS:s redovisningsbehandling av enheter utanför balansräkningen, inklusive enheter för särskilda ändamål, som kräver att det utövar betydande ledningsbedömning vid tillämpningen av redovisningsstandarder. Dessa standarder (och deras tolkning) har förändrats och kan fortsätta att förändras.

6. CS:s exponering mot juridiska risker är betydande och svår att förutsäga och volymen och antalet skador som kan krävas i tvister, lagstiftningsförfaranden och andra motsättningar mot finansiella tjänsteföretag fortsätter att öka på många av de viktigaste marknaderna där CS är verksamt. Förändringar i reglering och penningpolitik som är tillämpliga för CS (såväl som förordningar och ändringar i tillämpningspraxis som gäller för sina kunder) kan påverka dess verksamhet och förmåga att genomföra sina strategiska planer och öka kostnaderna, samt påverka efterfrågan från kunder för CS tjänster. Dessutom kan schweiziska upplösningförfaranden påverka våra aktieägare och borgenärer.
7. Intensiv konkurrens på alla marknader för finansiella tjänster, som har ökat till följd av konsolidering, liksom framväxande teknologi och ny handelsteknik (inklusive trender mot direkt tillgång till automatiserade och elektroniska marknader och övergången till mer automatiserade handelsplattformar). I en så mycket konkurrenskraftig miljö påverkas CS:s utveckling av dess förmåga att rekrytera och behålla högkvalificerade anställda och behålla sitt rykte för ekonomisk styrka och integritet, vilket kan skadas om dess procedurer och kontroller misslyckas (eller verkar misslyckas).

Begränsning av rättigheter:

- Emittenten kan lösa in Värdepapperen i förtid pga. olaglighet, eller efter vissa händelser som påverkar Emittentens hedgningsarrangemang och/eller den underliggande tillgången. Värdepapperen kan lösas in i förtid efter en uppsägningsgrundande händelse. I varje sådan situation, kommer det belopp som ska erläggas avseende varje Värdepapper att motsvara Beloppet vid Oplanerat Avslutande och inget annat belopp ska erläggas avseende varje Värdepapper avseende ränta eller i övrigt.

Där:

Belopp vid Oplanerat Avslutande: avseende varje Värdepapper, ett belopp (som kan vara större än eller lika med noll) som motsvarar värdet för sådant Värdepapper omedelbart före det att detta förfaller till betalning efter en uppsägningsgrundande händelse eller, i alla andra fall, så snart som är skäligen praktiskt efter fastställandet av Emittenten att lösa in Värdepapperet i förtid, så som detta beräknats av beräkningsagenten genom användandet av sina då rådande interna modeller och metoder.

Till undvikande av missförstånd; om ett Värdepapper löses in efter en uppsägningsgrundande händelse ska Beloppet vid Oplanerat Avslutande inte ta i beaktande någon tillkommande eller omedelbar inverkan av den uppsägningsgrundande händelsen som sådan avseende Emittentens kreditvärdighet (inklusive, men inte begränsat till, en faktisk eller förväntad nedgradering av dess kreditvärdighetsbetyg).

- Emittenten kan justera villkoren för Värdepapperen utan inhämtande av samtycke från Värdepappersinnehavarna till följd av vissa händelser som påverkar Emittentens hedgningsarrangemang och/eller den underliggande tillgången, eller kan lösa in Värdepapperen i förtid till Beloppet vid Oplanerat Avslutande beskrivet ovan (och inga andra belopp ska erläggas avseende Värdepapperen avseende ränta eller i övrigt efter sådant beslut av Emittenten).
- Villkoren för Värdepapperen innehåller villkor avseende kallande till fordringshavarmöten för Värdepappersinnehavare för att överväga skeenden som påverkar Värdepappersinnehavarnas intressen, och alla beslut som fattas av relevant majoritet vid ett fordringshavarmöte kommer vara bindande för samtliga Värdepappersinnehavare, oavsett om dessa närvarade vid sådant möte eller röstade för eller mot relevant beslut. I vissa situationer kan Emittenten justera villkoren för Värdepapperen utan inhämtande av samtycke från Värdepappersinnehavare.
- Värdepapperen är förbehållna för följande uppsägningsgrundande händelser: om Emittenten inte betalar något förfallet belopp avseende Värdepapperen inom 30 dagar från förfalldagen, eller om någon händelse avseende insolvens eller konkurs för Emittenten uppkommer.
- Emittenten kan vid vilken tidpunkt som helst, utan inhämtande av samtycke från Värdepappersinnehavarna, byta ut sig själv som Emittent under Värdepapperen mot varje bolag som det konsolideras med, varje bolag som Emittenten fusioneras med eller till vilket Emittenten säljer eller överför samtliga eller en betydande del av sin egendom.

Vilka nyckelrisker är specifika för Värdepapperen?

Värdepapperen är föremål för följande nyckelrisker:

1. Investerarare kan förlora en del av eller hela sin investering om en eller flera av följande händelser inträffar: (a) om Emittenten antingen misslyckas eller på annat sätt inte kan uppfylla sina betalningsförpliktelser enligt Värdepapperen, (b) om den Slutliga Valutakursen är mindre än 110 procent av den Initiala Valutakursen, (c) om investerarare säljer sina Värdepapper på sekundärmarknaden innan förfalldagen till ett belopp som är lägre än den ursprungliga inköpskursen, (d) om Värdepapperen löses in i förtid efter Emittentens eget gottfinnande och Belopp för Oplanerat Avslut är lägre än den ursprungliga inköpskursen, eller (e) om några justeringar görs i villkoren för de Värdepapper som resulterar i att det belopp som ska betalas under Värdepapperen minskas.

2. Värdet på och avkastningen på Värdepapperen kommer att bero på utvecklingen för varje Underliggande Tillgång över var och en av Genomsnittsdagarna, jämfört med nivån för den Underliggande Tillgången på den Initiala Fastställsedagen. Värdet på och avkastningen från Värdepapperen kommer också bero på utvecklingen för Valutakursen på den Slutliga Valutadagen jämfört med den Initiala Valutadagen. Om den Slutliga Valutakursen är lägre än 100 procent av den Initiala Valutakursen, kan värdet på och avkastningen från Värdepapperen bli väsentligt negativt påverkade, oavsett om utvecklingen för Underliggande Tillgång är positiv.
3. Om faktorn Deltagandeprocent är mindre än 100 procent, kommer inte Värdepappersinnehavaren delta till fullo i utvecklingen (oberoende av om den är positiv eller negativ) för den Underliggande Tillgången. I sådana fall kommer avkastningen på Värdepapperen vara oproportionellt lägre än någon positiv utveckling av den Underliggande Tillgången, och kan vara väsentligt lägre än om Värdepappersinnehavaren hade köpt den Underliggande Tillgången direkt.
4. Deltagandeprocenten kommer inte sättas av Emittenten förrän den Initiala Fastställsedagen, så att Emittenten kan ta hänsyn till de rådande marknadsförhållandena vid tidpunkten för stängning av erbjudandeperioden så att Emittenten kan emittera Värdepapperen till relevant kurs och på relevanta villkor. Potentiella investerare kommer inte ha ångerrätt från sin köpskyldighet när de(n) slutliga belopp(t) sätts av Emittenten. Investerare bör notera att det inte kommer publiceras något tillägg avseende sådan slutlig inställning.
5. Den Underliggande Tillgången är ett eget index som har en inbyggd volatilitetskontrollmekanism. Egna index är föremål för ytterligare risker associerade med en begränsad verksamhetshistoria och förlitande på externa data och datakällor. Reglerna för egna index kan förändras av den relevanta indexsponsorn vid var tid och indexsponsorn har ingen skyldighet att ta hänsyn till Värdepappersinnehavares intressen vid beräkning av sådant eget index.
6. Emittenten kan som konsekvens tillämpa vilket som helst uppskjutande av eller alternativa bestämmelser för värdering av den Underliggande Tillgången efter vissa störningar i samband med sådan Underliggande Tillgång, som var och en kan ha en negativ inverkan på värdet på och avkastningen på Värdepapperen.
7. Under vissa omständigheter (till exempel om Emittenten fastställer att dess skyldigheter enligt Värdepapperen har blivit olagliga, efter fallissemang eller efter vissa händelser som påverkar Emittentens hedgningsarrangemang och/eller den Underliggande Tillgången), kan Värdepapperen lösas in före den planerade förfallodagen. Under sådana omständigheter kan Beloppet för Oplanerat Avslut vara lägre än den ursprungliga inköpskursen och kan vara så lågt som noll. Inga andra belopp ska betalas för Värdepapperen på grund av ränta eller på annat sätt efter Emittentens fastställelse.
8. Med förbehåll för villkoren och andra begränsningar som anges i villkoren för Värdepapperen, om Emittenten bestämmer att justeringshändelser eller andra händelser som påverkar (i) den Underliggande Tillgången, eller (ii) Emittentens hedgningsarrangemang har inträffat, kan Emittenten justera villkoren för Värdepapperen utan samtycke från Värdepappersinnehavarna. En sådan justering kan ha en väsentlig negativ inverkan på avkastningen och värdet på Värdepapperen.
